

APRICA

Aprica - With its newly extended ski area, this ski area makes the perfect location for - beginners and intermediates.

Aprica is a picturesque village that sits high in the Valtelina area of Northern Italian Dolomites. The village extends through the long valley with all of the North facing slopes heading down into the village. Famous for its superb snow, Aprica can often provide good skiing conditions late into the season. The Baradello ski area now offers door step skiing for the Hotel Antares. The resort itself has plenty of shops, bars and restaurants providing plenty of apres ski!
