

ITALY

Passo Tonale, one of Italy's highest resorts, is a much sought after destination for school groups - and we can see why!!

Passo Tonale, one of Italy's highest resorts, is a much sought after destination for school groups. With the Presena glacier at 3,069m, skiing is snowsure with plenty of runs for beginners and intermediates! With over 80kms of prepared piste, there is plenty of skiing here for any school party. The village itself is constantly changing and many hotels undergo continual refurbishment ensuring high standards of accommodation. Tonale has a charm and character all of its own and is renowned for its friendly and hospitable locals.
